10 Training Tips

- 1) Say a command only once
- 2) Be consistent
- 3) Reward good behavior with praise or treats
- 4) Don't let your dog ignore a command—speak clearly
- 5) Only give a command when you mean it
- 6) Never call your dog to you and then punish the dog
- 7) Enforce all commands with appropriate corrections
- 8) Give your dog plenty of exercise
- 9) Never reward bad behavior
- 10) Make obedience a part of everyday life

Dawn Hanna has successfully trained many breeds of dogs ranging from an 8 pound Rat Terrier to a 120 pound Great Dane. She is a graduate of Tarheel Canine Training School in North Carolina. Well versed in dog behavior, Dawn has implemented programs to treat aggression, shyness, and hyperactivity in dogs. She works with dogs of all ages and loves her job.
